

How to See Trans People Come to Faith & lgbTQia Cult Members Be Made Free

As a former transgender (detransitioner), an EX-gay man and a rainbow cult member & advocate of 30+ years; as one who ministers to those trapped in the delusions of the TransQueer agenda, please allow me to provide some practical insights to help you engage with those trapped in this cult.

**And yes, those are my before & after pictures blended together.**

- Due to the familiarity and growing number of those involved in the lgbTQia TransQueer Rainbow Cult, it is becoming almost commonplace to meet these very confused & delusional people in one's family, grocery store, neighborhood, workplace, or anywhere for that matter. Because of this reality, we must establish relationships with those who do not look like, dress like, or act like us; or believe what we believe.
- Understand that being a part of this cult is what determines one's friends, location of residence, family dynamics, political views, thoughts, and feelings. Therefore, while discussing life and the gospel, as well as "gender" and sex, be careful not to attack their identity or you will be attacking their whole world... all that they know, and you will become the enemy. Their identity is this cult!
- Do not dodge the truth. When building intimate relationships, there can be an overemphasis on desiring to be liked. Whether you find yourself discussing lgbTQia TransQueer agenda or topics in the first conversation or not until later, stand firm in Truth as you lovingly & compassionately communicate with them. Don't let your own bias interfere with your representation in Word, Deed or Action.
- Be the example. As I am an example in word, deed, and action, I have watched the Lord touch many deceived and delusional people, giving them a desire for something more. I've seen many homosexuals and trans-identified people come out of the delusions, the bondage, that once held them captive. I have also seen many allies & supporters of the rainbow cult have their scales removed only to see this dark and deadly cult for what it is.
- The natural man does not receive things of the Spirit right away because they are foolishness to him (1 Cor. 2:14). Stop trying to force-feed the natural man things that are only spiritually discerned and might take some time to comprehend. Instead, be available to take a walk, help with a task, give a ride, fix something, provide a shoulder to lean on, a listening ear, or go to lunch. Just be available. Intimacy truly is an investment.
- Remember to communicate GOD'S Love, while also explaining that HIS Love alone will not get anyone into The Kingdom. Only HIS mercy and grace do that! We do not have to obtain GOD'S Love—HE already loves us—but we must obtain HIS Mercy which only happens when we humble ourselves before HIM in faith and in repentance. Believing that HE can, and will, grant each of us freedom.
- Do not beat someone up over one or two things they're doing. Homosexuality was not the only thing I was guilty of; I was promiscuous, on drugs, perverted, delusional and a whole lot more. We come to faith understanding that by nature we are sinful, which distorts every facet of our being. Therefore, salvation requires turning from all sin and turning to JESUS The CHRIST!
